*Re: Invoice for Service of Process Costs and Fees
Airfx.com et al v. AirFX, LLC
D. Arizona Case No. 2:11-cv-01064*

Dear Attorneys Haigh and Oskin:

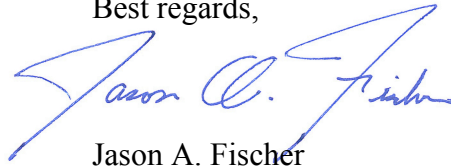

Provided herewith for your review and immediate payment is an invoice detailing our client's costs and fees incurred in affecting service of process in the above-cited lawsuit. Based on your client's failure to waive formal service, after receiving a proper request therefor, we were forced to spend attorney time and to engage the services of a process server in order to perfect service of the summons, complaint, and associated exhibits. According to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as well as the relevant case law interpreting and applying the same, this factual scenario subjects AirFX, LLC, to immediate liability for these costs and fees.¹

Should you choose to ignore this letter and invoice, you should be aware that we will move the Court, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(d)(2), for an Order requiring payment of not only the attached invoice, but additional fees we incur preparing and arguing our motion.² If payment in full is not received by 5:00 p.m. MST on September 9, 2011, we will take this as an affirmative representation that you and your client intend to continue refusing to comply with the plain language of Rule 4.

Best regards,

² The prior-cited opinions note that the Rule “makes abundantly clear that a defendant’s duty to avoid unnecessary costs of service is not related to the merits of the underlying case and, therefore, there is no cause to delay an award of costs even when . . . the Plaintiff’s claim [may be] without merit.” Double “S”, 171 F.R.D. at 253; Marcello, 238 F.R.D. at 116. Accordingly, our motion will be timely, even during the pendency of your motion to dismiss. Double “S”, 171 F.R.D. at 253; Marcello, 238 F.R.D. at 116.
